Note : Each child is an individual and until we get to know him/her we ask that the parents provide the Center with the schedule you have used at home. When the infant is able, we will convert him/her to the schedule used by the Center for all the infants. This schedule is only a guideline of your child’s day. The schedule is flexible and is changed according to the needs of your child.

* Aim to be implemented for older infants and once they have settled down and subject to Parent’s Consent.
